Biography

Luisa Grillo is an Italian attorney at law specializing in Intellectual Property, with a focus on the intersection of law and new technologies. As a lead associate at Abion, Luisa advises clients on protecting their valuable assets by managing the complexities of intellectual property in a rapidly evolving tech landscape. With an LLM in Competition Law and Innovation and an ongoing PhD in Private Law, Luisa is strategically combining professional growth with academic work. She is actively contributing to legal frameworks that address the challenges posed by innovation, positioning herself as a forward-thinking advisor in IP law in the digital era. In addition, Luisa is expanding her influence through open discussions with professionals on INTA's Twitch channel, engaging with the IP community on current issues and trends in intellectual property.
